Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My background,

I have been in the graphic design world for many years now from being at Leicester College doing a NVQ then onto a National Diploma in graphics. After this I studied at Lincoln University and completed a HND in graphics.

Now I'm working in a company, which I have gained a great deal of experience in carrying out an array of different graphic jobs. I produce a wide range of design lead items such as Packaging, Identity/Logo design, Printed Media, Web Media and Photography. As well as conforming to Corporate Guide lines for companies such as ASDA, Wilkinson and Sainsburys. I have basic website building skill which i would like to improve on in the future. I am hard working, enthusiastic, I always thrive to learn new skills and seek to gain more knowledge and learn all the intricate details of design.

Awards and Accolades

about me

I have been in the graphic design world for many years now from being at Leicester College doing a NVQ then onto a National Diploma in graphics which I was graded Distinction, Distinction, Merit. After this I studied at Lincoln University and completed a HND in graphics. During my time at university I sauced a work placement during my summer holidays. The placement was at STANDOUT A fast growing design company, I had to produce different items from packaging to identities.

Overall I am an enthusiastic, punctual, hard working and very well organised person, capable of working alone or in a team. With my current experience I have learnt to deal with customers and suppliers.
