Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Artist Biography

Matthew S. Kennedy is a self taught ceramic artist with an international reputation, whose professional career has spanned more than 16 years as a ceramic artist. His art work is featured in many offline and online galleries. In recent years, Matthew has developed strong relationships within the art community, consultants, television and movie artists and stylists, corporate representatives and interior designers who wish to provide their clients with extraordinary beautiful works of art. His art mediums are ceramic, and enameling, making unique use of vibrant pigments and colors for each piece of art work. The ceramic tattoo inspired collection is his most recent works. Matthew hand carves each design element for every piece.
