Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Dana Neibert (b. 1972) is a photographer based in Coronado, California where he lives with his wife and two children. From 1992-1995 he studied graphic design at the California College of the Arts in Oakland, California. From there he embarked on an award-winning career as an art director. Over time, he found himself drawn to the art of photography. Always enjoying making images since the age of six when his grandfather gave him a Kodak 110 camera with six rolls of film which Dana quickly exposed all 216 frames on the bumper of his mother's Chevy Nova. Dana's commercial endeavors take him around the world shooting for clients including American Express, Four Seasons, Lexus, GM, AT&T, Eli Lilly, Frito Lay, Johnson & Johnson, USTA, Intel, among others. Dana finds beauty in many simple and sometimes odd pedestrian situations. When he photographs, intuition takes over and drives the image making.
