Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Details are very important to me. I care passionately about paying close attention to the world around me, and crave understanding about how things work. My job as a photographer is to share that insight with the viewer, inviting them with an image of an interior space, a piece of furniture, or a person, to share my vision of what's essential or beautiful or compelling about the subject. In my best work, the process of making the picture is invisible, the image becomes a conduit between viewer and subject, and the viewer is inspired to spend a little more time enjoying the things that matter most: the details. Welcome. Thanks for visiting and checking out the work. If you'd like to see more, meet in person, or would like to just talk shop, please send a note or give a call. I'd love to hear from you.
