Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

ED has been creating things since he was born. While in school he studied art and visual communications. He also spent some time studying art direction in South Beach.

ED works as a collaborative team to help create new and unique images. He feels that through collaboration and teamwork the greatest ideas can be cultivated, nourished and brought to life.

Creating ideas in the form of photography is his passion. It's what he loves and it is what he will be doing for the rest of his life. For him, there is no other choice.

ED is also a commercial director- His director's reel is located at <http://EDdirects.com>

Previous Clientele

ED is represented by Lisa Button <http://www.ButtonRepresents.com>
