Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am an illustrator who currently resides in the lovely but sometimes cold city of Minneapolis, Minnesota. I recently graduated from the Minneapolis College of Art and Design with a shiny brand new Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree. I'm influenced by many things, but especially children's books, nature, architecture, love, scary stories, comics, traveling, the number 3..... and it goes on.

If I'm not working, I like to read books half way then never touch them again, watching trailers to movies, eating pancakes, reading blogs, doing absolutely nothing with friends, and every once in a while go to some new exotic place that I have never been before.

Please feel free to contact me for any illustration projects that you might have coming up, or if you just want to talk, that's fine too.
