Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Cheryl Gottschall comes to the commercial photography profession through a variety of twists and turns starting with an education at the Rochester Institute of Technology with a bachelors of Science degree in Biomedical Photographic Communications and currently as the owner and chief photographer of Gottschall Photography.

Gottschall Photography, based in Raleigh, NC, strives to be your photography department. With capabilities of studio and location photography, we are able to create images for any of your needs. Examples of these are: corporate executive portraits, location editorial style portraits, photography of your products, industrial photography and photography of your business (either inside or out) and even photography of your events.

Photographs have been created for corporate publications, magazines, brochures, table top books, websites, advertisements, press releases and more. With this experience and extended education in photography, we will be able to create the images you need.

If you have a project that you'd like to discuss, feel free to contact me.
