Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Inspired by huge waves and mountainous backdrops, Jeremy's career began with a focus on surf photography while living in Japan. Three years later, he moved to Sydney and developed the more technical aspects of his craft while studying at the Australian Centre for Photography.

Upon Returning to Canada, he gained years of practical education working under the country's top advertising and editorial photographers.

In 2012, Luerzer's Archive named him one of the Top 200 Advertising Photographers Worldwide.

Based in Toronto, Jeremy currently shoots advertising and editorial photography internationally. He is represented in Canada by Grasshopper and shoots motion with Frank.
