Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Despite being in his early 30s, Jesse Seaward has been in the photography business for more than a decade. In that time, he has worked with both editorial and advertising clients and has travelled widely. His distinctive work turns a fine graphic eye on everything from shoes to Santa, which has enabled him to compete in the world of advertising and to work on campaigns for some of the world's leading brands.

Jesse's most recent clients include The Post Office, GM, Mastercard, Suzuki, Tesco, The Red Brick Road, Big Group

Acknowledging the ever-changing medium of advertising, Jesse has been heavily involved in many digital-only campaigns both in stills and moving image.

Public Sector Spend Transparency
IT'S IN YOUR HANDS

Purchase and Pay is a dynamic end-to-end solution that lets buyers search, order and pay for products and services online in a mobile aware, Cloud computing environment. It gives buyers and suppliers the ability to optimize transaction efficiency, maximize control and ensuring that payment is made to suppliers immediately upon order fulfillment. Combining MasterCard's eProcurement (Web and Procurement) Gateway, Payment, Purchase and Pay puts the public sector super fully in control of what, when and where they spend. All transaction details supported at one time point giving complete spend transparency to support VAT reclaim.

With vital benefits to both buyers and suppliers, Purchase and Pay represents electronic commerce at its very best and gives your SME inclusion in public sector procurement.

Purchase and Pay supporting Government Procurement Service drive to make the public sector a great place for SMEs to do business.
