Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Karen I. Hirsch is an award-winning commercial, editorial and fine art photographer based in Chicago, Illinois. Her images have earned honors in worldwide competitions and have been published internationally in books, magazines and newspapers.

Hirsch "tells the story" with her images. She captures the essence of an event, location or personality. She has worked with top advertising agencies in the country.

In 2007, the Government of China honored Hirsch by inviting her to be one of ten foreign photographers to document the city of Rizhao. The Chicago Department of Cultural Affairs and the Illinois Arts Council have awarded her with art grants. Hirsch's work has been published in books, magazines, and newspapers including the Chicago Tribune, The Chicago Sun Times, Chicago Magazine, Communication Arts and Graphis photo annuals.

Hirsch is a member of the American Society of Media Photographers and immediate past president of Fort Dearborn-Chicago Photo Forum. Her prints are found in corporate and private collections.
