Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am a portrait and documentary photographer with a proven track record of delivering high quality, imaginative images to a variety of clients in London and New York.

Commission deliverables:

- Listening to your needs and understanding your specific requirements
- Realizing and capturing a portrait in a style that best reflects you or your brand
- Clear and concise communication from introduction through to completion
- Professional and efficient service that works for your business or individual purpose

I have previously had work highlighted in a variety of publications including The Independent, Daily Mail, The Huffington Post and Creative Boom.

With a diverse portfolio ranging from musicians to charities, and fashion brands to corporate clients I am adept at communicating on all levels and crafting visual solutions that creatively deliver desired results.

I am also an independent photography instructor with an ability to engage with students and a history of delivering successful training techniques.
