Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Starting as a creative lead designer and illustrator in Montreal fashion industry, I am flying to Los Angeles to become a graphic team department inspiration and production manager in a multi-disciplinary Architecture firm to then traveling a while from Vancouver to New Zealand, Japan, Thailand and back to Montreal as a Creative director freelancer. I am now ready to embrace ambitious visions and offers.

Graphic designer, Illustrator, print production manager, creative director, film maker, web design, clients pitch, project coordination, creative team leading and an awesome skier. My visual experience and technical knowledge can creatively apply to any visual projects.
