Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

If more do not remember, at the very beginning there was only a pencil, paper and also a world of ideas, voices and images in my head begging melodenado see the light. Along with this, a delicious imagination grew along with the games, colors, pencils, crayons and paints from my childhood. I gradually overcome by leaving these ideas, voices and images and converted to paths, drawings and cartoons. That was how I discovered that my world would be different. A world that I loved to build every day. A world where I can see, hear and feel things no one else can perceive. at school always emphasize in drawing and painting courses at the university but I continued my artistic talents by career specializing in advertising communication. Later, I further specialize in graphic design advertising and web design. PromPeru was the birthplace of my creative development, where I create and learn new techniques in areas where I developed: photography, graphic design and web design. My increasing contact with nature, travel and PromPeru encouraged a deep love for my country and found in me a passion for the art of photography. Now I wonder: how far I can get more? How to free up my imagination to the point of living and feel part of that world?, I think the animation has the answers ... the world of professional animation appeals to me, calls me and invites me to find out. This is where this creative pause before continuing their way through this different universe.
