Time Out
Tokyo

No.1 SPECIAL LAUNCH ISSUE! NOV 2013 - JAN 2014 TIMEOUT.COM/TOKYO

THIS ONE

BEST Buy bar in existence

WANT Service? Sushi

DON'T BE COY Want service? Sushi

DON'T TRANSFER YOUR TERIYAKI Want to pass food from chopstick to chopstick? It's a big no-no.

DON'T IMPALE YOUR RICE If you've seen the movie 'The Wolverine', you'll know that impaling your rice with chopsticks is a bad idea. It's considered extremely impolite to pass food from chopstick to chopstick. It's a huge faux pas that takes place at graduation ceremonies – so is considered, believe it or not, the death kind of a heel.

CHOPSTICK CHURLISHNESS And how to avoid it...

NO TIPPING

DON'T LEAVE A TIP

DON'T TOWEL DOWN

DON'T SLICE YOUR SUSHI

Sushi the way

No 1 How to behave at dinner

You're a long way from Yo! Sushi... Observe these rules and avert random acts of restaurant rudeness. By Rebecca Morice. Illustrations by Daniel Morgenstern

WHEN you arrive in Japan, it's likely you'll be overwhelmed by one culture shock hits right after the jet lag. Never fear, though—Time Out Tokyo's special launch issue will navigate the less immediately obvious aspects of Japanese etiquette of conduct. We begin, this issue, with an introduction to dining etiquette in public. Here's our guide to basic chopstick etiquette, plus a quick look at your own behaviour and how it's okay to stay (quickly) seated. It's okay to...

BY THE NUMBERS

Marunouchi's vital statistics

10 For that unrushed 'Happy hour'...

Unlike elsewhere in Tokyo, happy hour in the bars and restaurants of Marunouchi is a bit more laid back. Make like a local after a hard day in the office, kick back by a sitting room and watching the world go by with a glass of beer or a snack or two. Here are some local happy hour hotspots we can recommend...

THE PERFECT ROMANTIC DATE

Head to Malson Barzac for a reasonably priced Parisian-style restaurant with wine starting at just ¥700 per glass and a menu that's as French as it gets. The food is perfectly French, the wine list a mix of European old-world options, Malson Barzac, 1-29, 2-5-2 Mitsubishi Building, Marunouchi, Tokyo station JR/Hanzomon line. Tel: +81 3 6220 4871. 11am-11pm daily.

LORDING IT UP

Four hundred years ago, 24 of Japan's 'daimyo' lords had homes in the area of the Nomura Residence in front of the Imperial Palace. 'Marunouchi' means 'inside the Circle', referring to its position inside the moat.

LUXE LODGINGS

With just under 2,000 hotel rooms – 1,814 in top city hotels and a further 118 in ryokan – Marunouchi is ideal for those looking to combine classy style with a buzzing location.

HAPPY TRAVELS

The two overground and three underground stations in Marunouchi see some 2.3 million passengers. This figure dwarfs the 300,000 that pass through New York's Grand Central station.

WORTH A FORTUNE

Money talks... and Marunouchi is home to no less than 18 Fortune 500 companies, more than in the whole of New York, and two more than the whole of London. And there are only 48 in the whole of Tokyo.
