Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Greetings,

My name is Scott Stewart, and I am an award-winning graphic designer and multi-faceted artist/ animator with over fifteen years of experience in the field of graphic design and Flash web-site (front-end) animation and development.

I am exploding with creative concepts and ideas. I welcome the opportunity of working with an organization that is seeking the best and open to embracing progressive design concepts.

My experience has afforded me the opportunity to design for a host of notable organizations, companies and individual personalities. The list includes the following:

- Adidas Streetball – Stickman Logo/Jack
- Public Broadcasting Service (PBS) - HoopDreams
- Black Entertainment Television (BET) - Rap-It-Up (Safe Sex)
- Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) - Wildlife Strike Poster

Should you require any additional information or have further questions, please feel free to contact me via LinkedIn.

Thank you once again for your time and consideration. I look forward to meeting and speaking with you soon.

Best Regards,

Scott Stewart

HONORABLE
Christopher A. Hart
VICE CHAIRMAN

Christopher A. Hart was sworn in as a Member of the National Transportation Safety Board on August 13, 2009 and designated by the President for a two-year term as Vice Chairman of the Board on August 18.

Member Hart joined the Board after a long career in transportation safety, including a previous term as a Member of the NTSB. Immediately before returning to the Board, Member Hart was Deputy Director for Air Traffic Safety Oversight at the Federal Aviation Administration. He was previously the FAA Assistant Administrator for the Office of System Safety.

He served as a Member of the NTSB from 1990 to 1998. After leaving the Board, he served as Deputy Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, before moving to the FAA in 1998.

From 1973 until joining the Board in 1988, Member Hart held a series of top positions, mostly in the private sector.

He holds a law degree from Harvard University and Master's and Bachelor's degrees in Aerospace Engineering from Princeton University. He is a member of the District of Columbia Bar and the Lawyers Flight Bar Association.

Member Hart is a licensed pilot with commercial, multi-engine and instrument ratings.

Member Hart's family has a tradition of accomplishment in the field of transportation. His great uncle, James Herman Manning, was the first African American to receive a pilot's license issued by the United States government in 1935.
