Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Mark Wiens has over 20 years of experience shooting conceptual still life and product images. Merging interests in science, technology and design, he has developed special techniques for difficult to photograph materials and subjects.

Recognized for his graphically clean images, Mark is also known for his lighting style and innovative approach to challenging subject matter. Wry humor and fresh looks at everyday objects characterize his conceptual work while his product photography is noted for its elegant lighting and simple, iconographic composition.
