Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Michelle Bocklage is an illustrator based in the New York City area who applies the classical drawing and painting techniques learned at The School of Visual Arts to her traditionally and digitally created works. Whether aiming to spark the imagination, tug at the heart, punch in the guts, or tickle the funny bone, Michelle's focus is on making meaningful and memorable connections with the audience. Her colorful and detailed vector illustrations and muted pen and ink work are perfect for editorial, advertising, children's books, animation and beyond.
