Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Smith + Union is a creative production collective. We tackle each job with elegant pragmatism and unhinged youth. We dance the line between grit and glamour, providing our clients with the tools to tell their stories with divine authenticity.

We find magic in the everyday and the story with each new face. One fist in the air and one swirling the vanguard.

Smith + Union has worked with clients from around the world providing a fresh perspective to entertainment and advertising. Smith + Union was cultivated in North Carolina over ten years ago and then migrated west to spend the last eight years in California. We work with the worlds finest photographers and scouts to seek out the elusive talents and locations of the everyday, discovering those unique of-the-moment personalities who fit your brand with both style and flare. We believe in the power of authenticity in the real world, the pure of play in a natural environment, and the marriage of a rebellious process with proven results.

Basically, we don't do anything like anybody else.
And truth be told, neither should you.
