Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

My name is Sophie Navarro. I have been illustrating for over 25 years. I enjoy creating a series of comic strips, freelance as an illustrator and enjoy having art shows around Eugene, OR. I draw my inspiration from Vogue Books from the 1920's, classic comics like The Archies, Love and Rockets and in love with paintings by Gauguin. I am inspired by everyday life. I am fascinated by watching people, creating new characters and writing new stories.

I enjoy freelancing work, creating flyers, logo designs, t-shirt designs and creating new paintings.

Previous Clientele

My clients range from creating logo designs for a gynecologist, a local comedian, a dating guide and working with my union representative to design shirts. I am contacted through word of mouth, through facebook, my comic blog and meeting people randomly as well.
