All The Pretty Horses

All the Pretty Horses
Cormac McCarthy

"A modern-day Western full of horses and gunfire and romance, it transports the reader to a genre with understated, high-spirited, bottomless inventiveness. All the Pretty Horses is a true American original."
—Newsweek

"All the Pretty Horses's elegant rhythm captures the hardships of Texas and northern Mexico with a passion most writers either couldn't or wouldn't dare."
—Boston Globe

All the Pretty Horses tells of young John Grady Cole, the last of a long line of Texas ranchmen. Across the border Mexico beckons beautiful and dangerous, rugged and cruelly civilized. With two companions he sets off on an epic, comic-tragic coming-of-age journey, to a place where dreams are paid for in blood.
