Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I'm Enrique García, I'm a graphic designer with love for all identity-related things. I'm the one behind the logos, the colors, the types and everything that people will relate to you and your company.

The Engar Presence is the image under which I achieve all of this and have been live since January 2010, under this image I've created quite a few identities and designs for startups and experienced companies along the world.

Previous Clientele

Just to name a few; Lovely Little Things (Netherlands), KWCard (Canada), HumanResources (USA), Xefera (México), Aviamé (Finland) and many others.
