NEED A FOTOGRAPHER?

About Allan

Allan Johnston photographic lineage spans 50+ years, including family and highly respected mentors from both New Zealand and the USA.

Photography has always been a natural passion and through his work he tells the story. Allan's work has an organic feel that balances nature and emotion, capturing the essence of his subjects moment with honest reflection and a synergistic approach.

When not on a major shoot Allan will be found on the mean streets of Auckland or Internationally as required, camera in hand, searching out new subjects. Always with a smile and companionability that is apparent in his images.
