Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I am a freelance illustrator based in Oakland, CA. I live with my husband and twin 4 year- old daughters, Scarlett and Juniper. I studied illustration at Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, CA and have been drawing and painting like crazy for clients (and for myself) ever since.

Previous Clientele

Partial client list includes Levi Strauss & Co, McSweeney's, The Chicago Reader, Women's Day magazine, Passion Pictures NYC, Curious Circus, and Traver HMG.

2008-present Freelance Illustrator

Clients include: Levi Strauss & Co (Global branding & marketing departments), McSweeney's, Passion Pictures NYC (for Linda McCartney Foods), The Chicago Reader, Women's Day Magazine, Curious Circus, Traver HMG (for PepsiCo), and others.

2005-2012 Painting Instructor, Art Center College of Design

Demonstrated an "alla-prima" portrait painting style using oil paints. Prepares themed theatrical sets using live models and props. Provided one-on-one instruction of various rendering techniques.

2005-2010 Figure Drawing Instructor, Art Center for Kids

Designed and implemented a three-hour, seven-week course for children ages 9-13. The focus of the class was to progress students from drawing simple shapes to drawing expressively and accurately from a live model. Students also gained the ability to use various traditional rendering techniques. Class size: +/- 17.
