Why Gardencrafts is the best choice for your organisation.

When we say we are a superb choice for your exterior designing and grounds maintenance, there are some solid reasons on which we base our claims:

- We are specialists in grounds maintenance with professional staff
- We are a superbly equipped company with some of the best machinery & equipment
- We possess a wealth of experience in the field
- We are a financially reliable and stable company
- We abide by an extensive health and safety policy
- We possess a £100,000,000 public and employers liability cover
- We perform regular Risk Assessments and Method Statements on behalf of our clients
- We are an ISO 9002 accredited company
- We are regularly rated by R.A.I. the premier trade publication
- We have satisfied customers who would testify to our excellence - References are available on request

We at Gardencrafts value our relationships with customers, some of which go back more than 30 years. We deliver our services with a commitment to the highest standards of professional standards, reliable service and on time work ethic. We are in a unique position to deliver long term service and strong working relationships that span generations. We offer a one year short contract for our new clients, so that they have the option to sign up for an extended contract or opt out at the end of the year. Based on the best landscape design experience, during this time you can find us working on your site to delight our clients. It is no surprise that our service is second to none.

Let our team of professional designers and experienced groundskeepers help get in touch with you immediately, ready to serve you with the best of Gardencrafts quality and integrity.

Let us know what you wish to see beyond your window...and we shall create well-maintained grounds that you would be proud to call home.
