Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

INKSURGE. Brewed in Manila, Philippines 2002.

A design studio concocted by digital baristas and authentic coffee junkies Jois Tai (she takes it w/ milk) and Rex Advincula (he takes it w/ sugar).

A visual stimulant. A creative brewery. An excuse for waking up late. An excuse for staying up later.

Steeped in a rich passion for visual arts both as a communication and a public contribution, the INKSURGE trademark extends from collective idea generation to project development to creative execution. An immersive design culture between their various clients and project collaborators –

– a design culture that has gained recognition from the local and international web design, print, and interactive scene, making the INKSURGE blend rich in concoction.

Caffeine overdrive, a restless imagination, and a burn for creation make a genius brew, after all.

The passion for graphic design lead them to creative outlets both in the local and the international scene, appearances includes books and magazines such as DPI Magazine (TW), Goodie Bag (CH), "Sticky Graphics" by Rotovision (UK), "Print and Production Finishes for Promotional Items" by Traffic-Design/Rotovision, "Tres Logos" by Die Gestalten Verlag GmbH & Co. KG (DE), "Play Loud!" by Die Gestalten Verlag GmbH & Co. KG (DE), "Post Modern Bible Stories" (US), Jeremyville Sketchel Show (AU), Curvy 3 (AU), Curvy 2 (AU), DJZone Magazine (NL), "PLACE: 35 Designers - 35 Cities" by Actar (ES), "SONIC Music" by Die Gestalten Verlag GmbH & Co.
