Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Jacob Charles Dietz is an internationally published artist and illustrator working in both traditional and digital mediums. His work encompasses everything from future noir and science fiction, to topics of technology and the plight of man, making it very accessible to a broad audience. His illustrations have appeared on various book covers, posters and products as well as in numerous magazines and newspapers worldwide. Bridging the gap between the now and the then, Jacob's work is constructed with layers upon layers of detail and almost always includes elements of the 21st century in whatever future he is depicting, making the foreign seem strangely familiar.
