— sometimes love falls short to describe passion. —

Make sure you have the following

- A strong portfolio of existing design work.
- A genuine interest in the latest trends & practises for digital & print design. We like to try new things at nailbites, hopefully you do too.
- The ability to take written and verbal briefs for projects, and transfer them to layouts / designs that achieve our client's objectives.
- The ability to produce work quickly and accurately, and sometimes to tight deadlines.
- A good grasp of Photoshop and Corel Draw apart from Illustrator.

The following would be a bonus

- An interest in responsive/interactive design would be good.
- Knowledge of HTML would be an added advantage.
- Knowledge of Flash (on a minimalistic level).
- Happy go lucky – We believe a happy mind delivers good work!

Send your resume and the mind-blowing portfolio to info@nailbites.in.
