Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

Paul Thompson, born in 1977, boasts ten successful years in the photographic industry, picking up numerous awards and accolades along the way.

After graduating from Newcastle Art and Design College in 1999, Paul moved to London where he assisted many leading advertising photographers.

Following many credited campaigns, Paul set up his own studio in the heart of the photographic community, Shoreditch, London where his commissioned work continues to span a diverse range of projects both on a European and UK level.

Paul's work has been exhibited and enjoyed at the National Portrait Gallery (2004 and 2005) as well as receiving many leading industry awards over the last 10 years.
