Professional Experience and Curriculum Vitae

I'm obsessed with making things and even more obsessed with making things better. I've been in the business of creating since I was a child. Eventually attending Wexford C.I. Gifted Art Program I discovered my true love laid in the field of graphic design. After graduating from Humber College with a graphic design and advertising degree, with a special interest in print and editorial design. I ventured into the world of a design studio and quickly figured out it wasn't a right fit for me. I decided to open up my own business and run my own show how I wanted and on my own terms.

I've worked with a variety of clients and companies over the years to produce beautiful and effective business identities, websites, posters, menus, resumes, cards and other various material. I've also discovered a particular interest in the food industry and have found great success in the restaurant and catering business.

My interests, however, extend beyond the page and I also love illustration whether it be my own artwork or a child's picture book.

When I'm not designing, I'm probably working in my organic rooftop container garden, constructing products out of recycled items, or antiquing.
