ALMOST AS GOOD.

If you're not home, or the local fire department doesn't happen to live with you, getting FireWatch 24-hour monitored protection is a very good idea. You see, unlike regular smoke detectors, FireWatch doesn't just sound an alarm, it automatically calls for help when it should, and not when you do something like, say, burn the toast. Which is perhaps the best logical protection you can offer your family, your pets, and all of your investments. For more information, call 1-800-FireWatch (1-800-347-2626) or visit www.firewatch.com.

VISIT THE FIREWATCH BUSTIN' BUDDY TO REGISTER FOR A CHANCE TO WIN A FREE FIREWATCH MONITORED SMOKE ALARM SYSTEM COMPLETED WITH FREE MONITORING FOR THREE YEARS (A $200 VALUE). OTHER PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED TOO.

YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO GO TO THE GROCERY STORE
WHENEVER YOU DARN WELL PLEASE.

WHENEVER, WHEREVER, FOR WHATEVER.

Do you need to go somewhere? Maybe you don't have a car. Or you can't drive anymore. Or you just don't want to battle traffic day in, day out. Whatever your reason, you might want to take a little time to get to know C-TRAN. With 27 routes throughout Clark County and 10 commuter routes between Vancouver and Portland, C-TRAN is reliable transportation for a world that is, well, anything but. Here are some more numbers and facts you might find interesting:

- > C-TRAN has more than 170 total vehicles.
- > Each weekday, C-TRAN travels over 14,000 miles.
- > In ten years C-TRAN ridership has tripled, growing from just a little over two million in 1988 to over six million in 1998.

If you use a wheelchair, scooter, cane, crutches, walker or have difficulty bending your legs, you're already very familiar with transportation challenges. So you should also know that all C-TRAN buses traveling within Clark County are equipped with lifts to help you into the bus. And all C-TRAN buses are designed to "kneel" to make that first step a little easier. These features are easy to use, but C-TRAN can bring a bus to you during a Mobility Training Session if you feel like you could use some practice and maybe some encouragement.

Of course, no matter how many wheels you have, you could always use some help. So there's Bike & Bus, which allows passengers to take their bike with them, and Bike & Lock, which provides lockers for bikes at designated transit centers. For those of you who refuse to join the ranks of the road rage, there's also Vanpooling, CommuteMatch and the Commute Trip Reduction program. Finally, there's the C-TRAN SafeWatch program, which makes every C-TRAN vehicle a haven for those in distress. Anyone, young or old, can flag down a C-TRAN vehicle for emergency assistance just by waving both hands overhead. In fact, every week over 400 C-TRAN employees stay alert to potential problems like lost children, fires, accidents and criminal activity.

But how can C-TRAN help you personally if you don't ride the bus at all? Well, buses have been proven to reduce traffic congestion, parking problems and air pollution. Something to consider, as more and more people move here. And if you do decide to become a rider, using C-TRAN will reduce your spending on gas, insurance, and wear and tear on your car. Not to mention the wear and tear on you. After all, when you ride C-TRAN, you can use your commute time for reading, checkbook balancing or day dreaming.

If you would like more information on any of C-TRAN's programs, please call the Customer Assistance Office at 695-0123 or 695-2760 for TDD/Hearing Impaired. You can also visit our Web site at www.c-tan.com for general information and trip planning.

MOBILITY IS EVERYTHING.

SAFEGUARD AND OTHER NICE THINGS.

MORE REASONS TO LIKE BUSES.

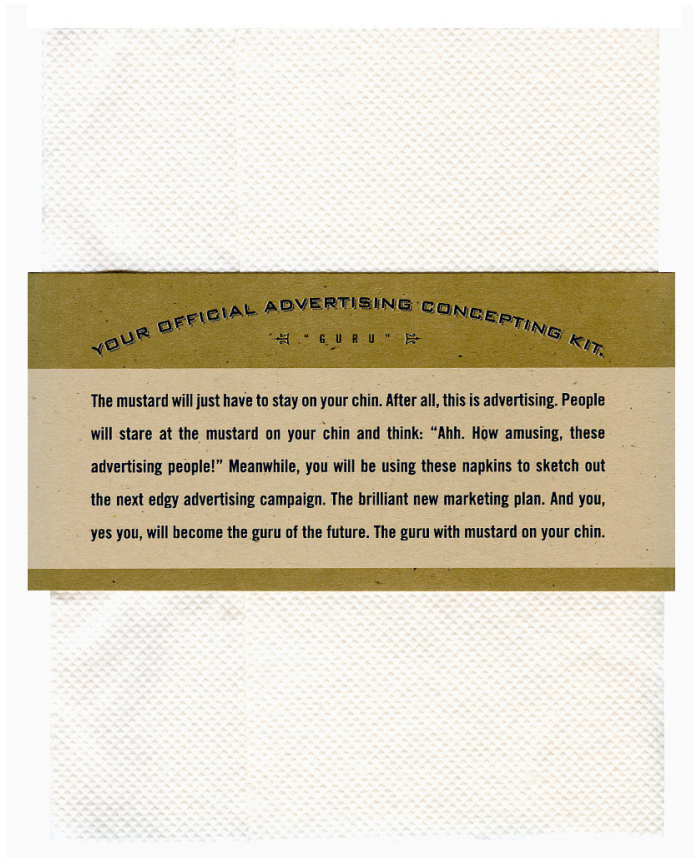

EVERYONE'S GOING SOMEWHERE. WE RECOMMEND FORWARD.
